TATA Motors Ltd

January 29, 2022

From,
Referee Name
Designation
Company

Subject: Employment Reference Letter

To Whom It May Concern

Mr. "YOUR NAME" has been working with TATA Motors as a Network Engineer from Sep 2011 to July 2015. He always proved himself a multi-tasked, hardworking, troubleshooting and resolving network issue. Moreover, he has more than nine years of rich experience as a network engineer in network hardware selection installation and maintenance. He has impressive performance by implementing computer technical skills and knowledge in collaborating with vendors to resolve problems and update equipment.

In the company, Senthil Kumar is responsible to perform many engineering activities, such as:

ICT related Roles and Responsibilities

- Responsible to provide Network support to South & East Regional Office & Data Center of 30 branches.
- Responsible for Configuring VLANS, STP, RSTP, HSRP, VTP Trunking, Inter-VLAN routing
- Responsible for diagnosing critical DNS changes in both internal and External DNS servers.
- Responsible for Reviewing SOP documents and updation of the same in SharePoint site.
- Closely working with L3 engineering team for critical issues/changes.
- Responsible for DHCP windows scopes migrating to Adonis (IPAM) DHCP Server.
- Responsible for Analyzing, troubleshooting and correcting network problems remotely and on-site.
- Required to perform problem diagnosis, health audit, and security posture verification for All the Network Devices, link a switch, router, access point and firewall.
- Responsible for Troubleshooting WAN, LAN and all network performance related problem
- Responsible to follow the decommissioning process for all the network devices.
- MIS reporting of Network Health Dashboard HO on daily basis.
- Responsible to Troubleshoot the network alerts STP, HSRP, Node down & Link failure which is received from monitoring tool.

While performing the allocated tasks, He has ability to follow processes, strong documentation skills, an ability to learn new technologies quickly. I found him a passionate and positive attitude about his job. He is friendly with good communication skills.

TO BE CONTINUED…